DEATH OF A GURU:

"In this wildly complex and tautly composed thriller set in Southeast Asia, author Doug Greenall marries the ferocious beating heart of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness ... to the exotic plunge into madness found in the 1990's cult classic The Beach by Alex Garland."

(from the 5-star Blue Ink Review)

"Readers will find that they are both entertained and intrigued by the author's shining example of literary brilliance. This book follows the intertwined lives of the two primary characters Dr. Devon Clarke and "Magic" Magnus Larsen as they each embark on a life-altering journey that embodies spirituality, redemption, rebirth, love, and the dark side of the human psyche."

Lisa Brown-Gilbert, Hollywood Book Reviews (from the 5-star review)

"A startlingly well-written, fast-paced and exciting novel with a heightened emotional tension and a poetic, noir-like prose that lends the book an ambitious, propulsive pace" not to mention a plot twist that lingers even after the final denouement has played out.

(from the 5-star Blue Ink Review)

"A brilliant and complex literary thriller DEATH OF A GURU is one that you simply can't miss."
